

XXIII INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS ON LAW AND THE HUMAN GENOME

Organised by

Biscay Regional Council, University of Deusto, University of the Basque Country Inter-University Chair in Law and the Human Genome

Director

Prof. Dr. iur. Dr. med. Dr. h. c. mult. Carlos María Romeo Casabona
Director of the Inter-University Chair in Law and the Human Genome
Chair in Criminal Law, University of the Basque Country

Coordinator

Dr. Elena Atienza Macías
Researcher, Inter-University Chair in Law and the Human Genome

Bizkaia Aretoa Auditorium (Arriaga Hall)

University of the Basque Country
Avda. Abandoibarra 3,
Bilbao

Monday, 11 April 2016

PROGRAMME

08.45: Doors open. Submission of accreditations

09.15: Opening session

Carlos María Romeo Casabona

Director of the Inter-University Chair Provincial Government of Biscay in Law and the Human Genome, University of Deusto, University of the Basque Country and Professor of Criminal Law, University of the Basque Country, Bilbao.

Amaia Maseda García

Vice-Rector of Outreach and Transfer, University of the Basque Country, Lejona

Gema Tomás Martínez

Dean of the Law Faculty, University of Deusto, Bilbao.

09.30: FIRST SESSION: “La ingeniería genética en seres humanos” (genetic engineering in humans)

Raúl Mallaina

Co-secretary of the Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development Committee, Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe, Strasbourg.

09.50: Coffee break

10.30: ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION: “Clinical trials, new regulatory approaches”

Moderator: Carla Barbosa

Researcher, Centre for Biomedical Law and the Legal Institute, University of Coimbra

Participation of the Spanish Agency of Medicines

César Hernández

Head of the Department of Medicines for Human Use, Madrid

Impact of the single judgement on the centres that will take part in the study

Francisco Abad

Chairman of the Research Ethics Committee at La Princesa University Hospital, Madrid.

Evaluation of the biomedical research by the ethics committees

Iciar Alfonso Farnós

Vice-chairman of the Clinical Research Ethics Committee in the Basque Country/ CEIC-E, Vitoria

New developments in regulation of clinical trials

Amelia Martín Uranga

Head of the Spanish Technology Platform for Innovative Medicines-Farmaindustria, Madrid

12.30: PRESENTATION OF COMMUNICATIONS

13.45: Break

15.30: PRESENTATION OF COMMUNICATIONS

16.45: ROUND TABLE DISCUSSION: “Genetic analysis in insurance contracts”

Moderator: Inmaculada Herbosa Martínez

Lecturer in Civil Law, University of Deusto and member of the "Genetic Analysis and Insurance Contracts" project, University of Deusto and the Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness (MINECO) Bilbao

The studies conducted by the Council of Europe Bioethics Committee (HR-BIO)

Doris Wolfslehner

Head of the Secretariat Austrian Bioethics Commission Federal Chancellery, Vienna

Regulations applicable in Spain

Luis M. Almajano

State Attorney, Managing Partner of Almajano Abogados and member of the SEAIDA Board of Directors Former member of the Board of Administration, Insurance Compensation Consortium and the Board of Liquidation Commission of Insurance Companies, Madrid.

Options in Comparative Law

Carlos María Romeo Casabona

Director of the Inter-University Chair Provincial Government of Biscay in Law and the Human Genome, University of Deusto, University of the Basque Country and Professor of Criminal Law, University of the Basque Country, Bilbao.

18.15: Delivery of the Award for the Best Communication and Closure

The XXIII International Congress on Law and the Human Genome is associated with the following research projects:

- KONTUZI
"Responsabilidad causal de la comisión por omisión: Una dilucidación ético-jurídica de los problemas de la inacción indebida" (Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness)
- BIOTERR
"Bioterrorismo y Bioseguridad: Bases para la estructuración de nuevos instrumentos jurídico-penales para enfrentar las amenazas biológicas" (Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness)
- EUGEI
"European Network of National Schizophrenia Networks Studying Gene-Environment Interactions" (European Commission)
- E-ENERCA
"New e-health services for the European reference network on rare anaemias" (European Commission)
- SAIOTEK 2012
"Synbio, Análisis de las implicaciones de la biología sintética en el ámbito de la propiedad intelectual" (Department of Industry, Innovation, Trade and Tourism, Basque Government)
- EDEN
"End-user driven DEmo for cbrNe" (European Commission)
- CLL
"Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia Genome Project (contributing member of the International Cancer Genome Consortium -ICGC-)" (Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness)